FOP Lodge #4 Endorses John Cluster for Delegate & Vicki Almond for County Council

Delegate John Cluster, 8th District

Representing Parkville, Carney, Perry Hall, Overlea and Rosedale

John grew up in Arbutus Maryland, where he attended Catonsville High School. After graduating, John joined the Baltimore County Police Department as a Cadet. After completion of the Academy, he became a Police officer, protecting the citizens of Baltimore County. John has sound judgment and sensibility, which allows him to get things done in Annapolis. He was selected as Legislator of the Year three times by the Maryland State Fraternal Order of Police.

John was appointed to the Maryland House of Delegates to fill the vacated seat of Delegate Al Redmer in 2003. In 2006, John lost the election by less than 300 votes in one of the closest elections in the State. After such a close race, John continued to be active in the community and in 2010, John was elected back to House of Delegates.

Councilwoman Vicki Almond

2nd District, Baltimore County Council

Councilwoman Vicki Almond took the oath of office on December 6, 2010, to represent the Second District on the Baltimore County Council. She became the first woman to hold this seat and only the third woman to serve on the Baltimore County Council. For 30 years, Vicki has been involved in building consensus and solving problems. Vicki's front-line experience in state and local government has proven to be invaluable on the County Council.

Vicki has shown the courage to tackle the needs of the citizens of Baltimore County, while creating jobs, revitalizing commercial districts, and providing the tools that our police and emergency personnel require.
